

KENNEDY CATHOLIC PREPARATORY SCHOOL

Pre-AP English 2 Honors Summer Reading Assignments 2025

1. Night by Elie Wiesel
2. The Count of Monte Cristo by Alexandre Dumas – use the abridged paperback version or online version – which will be downloaded to your Notability on school IPADS in Sept.
<https://www.epedagogia.com.br/materialbibliotecaonline/797The-Count-of-Monte-Cristo.pdf>
3. The Alchemist by Paulo Coelho – use paperback or online version – which will be downloaded to your Notability on school IPADS in Sept.
https://ia801006.us.archive.org/13/items/OceanofPDF.comTheAlchemist/OceanofPDF.com The Alchemist.pdf

Reading Instructions

- Annotate - As this is your first attempt at annotation – be brief with your notes in margins focusing on characters, settings, and themes. We will review the annotations in class.
- Multiple choice tests will be given for each novel.
- Be prepared for an in-class essay on Night.

Essay on The Alchemist due first day of class.

Do not consult internet for ideas. Be original.

Essay will consist of 3 paragraphs and can be no longer than 1 page, doubled spaced, Font: Times New Roman, 12 Pt.

Paragraph 1

Include Title, Author, Genre (which is a novel).

Identify what you think is the Theme of The Alchemist. Discuss how either Characterization or Setting helps you to understand your Theme. Everyone will have different Themes – there is no one message – so trust your instincts.

Paragraph 2

Give 2 specific examples of your chosen device (characterization or setting) and explain how it helps you to understand the Theme you have learned from The Alchemist.

Paragraph 3

Conclusion

*If you have any questions, contact:
Maira Normile at mnormile@kennedycatholic.org*